

Friends of Parkville Nature Sanctuary

Monthly Photo Contest

for

Amateur Photographers

Have you captured the beauty of the Parkville Nature Sanctuary with your camera? If so, the Friends of Parkville Nature Sanctuary (FOPNS), a non-profit organization, would like to hear from you.

The FOPNS is having monthly photo contests for 2018.

- Photo entries must represent images for the contest month.
- All ages are eligible to submit photos; entry is free.
- Photos must be emailed to: fopns12@gmail.com by 8:00 p.m. the first day of the following month.
- Entries must include:
 - Name of photographer, address, telephone number, email address, date photo taken, time of day photo taken, location within Sanctuary, caption of subject matter.
- Entries should be jpeg format and at least 3 MB.
- Photos must be taken in Parkville Nature Sanctuary and capture its flora, fauna, history, landscapes or people enjoying the Sanctuary. (Identifiable people must provide consent for photo use.)
- Entries are limited to one per person per month.
- Contest is limited to amateur photographers.
- Each monthly winner will be recognized by the City of Parkville with a certificate of recognition at a quarterly Board of Aldermen meeting.
- Each winning photo will be displayed for one month at The Parkville Coffeehouse and Parkville City Hall and later at Backyard Bird Center.
- Images may be used to promote the Parkville Nature Sanctuary and the City of Parkville. FOPNS reserves the right to crop photos to meet needs.
- Monthly winners will be notified by email early the following month.
